SHILLING'S TRIP IN VAIN.

COMES TO RIDE EMPLOYER'S TWO HORSES AT OAKLAND, BUT FAILS ON BOTH.

Track Affected by Light Rain, but Favorites Rule the Day-Collector Jessup Wins a

San Francisco, Cal., December 2.—R. L. Thomas, accompanied by jockey Shilling, made a flying trip to Oakland today, arrived from Los Angeles this morning and returned sadder, but wiser this evening. His mission involved starting and backing his stable entries, Chipmunk and Billy Bowlegs, with Shilling up. The projected coups failed, neither of the horses winning. Chipmunk was a receding first choice and Billy Bowlegs second choice. Their owner expected rain and mud and the pair were marked for certain defeat on the comparatively fast going.

owner expected rain and mid and the pair were marked for certain defeat on the comparatively fast going.

Rosamo and Hazlet, two heavily backed second choices, scored right off the reel. Then followed a complete sequence of hot favorites in Kokomo, Belle Kinney, Wap and Collector Jessup, a wonderful record under the existing deceptive track conditions. Rettig was the best Jockey of the day and covered himself with glory, his ride on the final winner being acclaimed a masterly effort. This was the principal feature carded. Nine started and developed a spectacular and exciting struggle throughout. The proverblat blanket would have covered the four leaders at the end.

Barney Schreiber's lightweight jockey, Deverich, rode a sensational finish on Warden, he going two feet to the others' one. Schleswig retired precipitately on the far turn and it is common belief that Hildreth's colt is overrated.

F. D. Weir continues to bid up the winners of selling races regardless of the owners. He raised Rosamo in the opener from $500 to $800. The public marveled at the miraculous recovery of Captain Kennedy, which finished a rushing second behind Wap, showing fast recovery from injuries sustained recently in a fall in a race.

Mose Goldblatt has lost another horse. His yearling sister to Au Revoir died yesterday at Los An geles.

J. B. Dunn's arrival from Santa Anita, with ten horses, is expected Thursday, Barney Schreiber will ship a number of his best mares now in foal across the Mexican border before foaling time, to ensure eligibility of the produce to all big turf features to be decided in Mexico hereafter.

after. Charles T. Henshall sends word he will come to chakland shortly with his string of racers at present at Santa Anita.

Jacobite, Lawrence P. Daley, Berry Maid, Missouri Lad, Johanne Blake and Firestone received stiff work-outs this morning and are ready to race. Don Enrique, Montgomery, Dorante and Sewell made very fast moves yesterday. Big Chief went a striding six furlougs gallon.

H. E. Rowell got back from Santa Anita today.

NEW YORK TALK OF THE TURF.

Wimmer to Race First of Migraine's Progeny in California-Fashion Plate Doing Well.

New York, December 2.—Among the horses belonging to J. E. Madden, which Peter Wimmer will take to Los Angeles for a winter campaign at Sauta Anita Park, are several yearlings, the first get of Madden's young stallion, Migraine. Three of these already mamed are Dollie Higgins, brown filly by Migraine—Frances McClelland; Milles, named for General Nelson A. Miles, brown colt by Migraine—Countess Wanda, and Levengston, bay or brown colt by Migraine—Clasher. Miles is a fine-looking colt and has displayed considerable speed in his trials. The sire of these youngsters was not much of a success under colors, but as he is a horse of opportunity at Hamburg Place, and the performances of his progeny next year will be watched with interest.

of his progeny next year with the terest.

Jerome Welsh, who was assistant starter to Mars Cassidy on the New York tracks, sailed on the Campania yesterday for Ireland. Mr. Welsh is a brother of Thomas Welsh, trainer of the Newcastle Stable, and is a horseman of wide experience, having ridden and trained steeplechase horses both in this country and abroad. He will look after a number of bunters his brother has in training at Limerick.

country and abroad. He will look after a number of immers his brother has in training at Limerick. George Walker says that a new track is being built in Berlin, 'Idermany, 'which will be ready to race over next season.

Jockey Obert, who was ruled off at Latonia in 1906 for a bad ride on Coruscate, has been restored to good standing and will ride in Havana this winter for the Hill Stable.

'W. H. Karrick, trainer for the Oneck Stable, is now installed in his new quarters at Sheepshead Bay. All the horses under his care are looking well. John Huggins left for his old home in Texas yesterday, where he will remain about three weeks and then go to California.

Considerable surprise was expressed here that Oiseau only brought $150 at the recent Fasig-Tipton sale at Lexington, Ky. Oiseau cost James B. Brady $26,000 and won eighteen races and $49,200 during his racing career.

Declarations from three of the stakes of the Brooklyn Jockey Club are due January 1. These stakes are the Brooklyn Derby, the Carlton and the Gazelle.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

V. Powers scored the honors last week, riding seven winners, making a total of twenty-two winners ridden by him since his arrival on the coast, November 9. W. Miller and A. Walsh rode five each, the former displacing E. Dugan for fourth position in the ranks of the thirty leaders. C. H. Shilling piloted four during the six days of racing. The standing of the thirty leading jockeys from January 1, to and including the racing of November 28, their percentages and races won the past week are as follows:

SANTA ANITA SLOWED BY RAINFALL.

Light Wool Defeats Mark Antony II. and Stanley Fay-Proper Takes a Race.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 2.—Rain during the early morning bours rendered the track sloppy today, giving the mud-larks a chance to show their mettle. As is usual on days of this kind much scratching was indulged in, most of the fields being small. Old Proper redeemed himself today for his poor showing of last Friday. The going was made to order for him and he was at all times held an odds-on favorite. His crazy antics at the post caused anxiety among his backers for a few minutes, but, getting off for others all the way, winning in a canter.

Henry McDaniel put his regular daily over when Light Wool, held at second choice in the betting, proved an easy victor in the fourth race. He had little difficulty in disposing of Mark Antony II., the favorite, holding him safe all the way. Judge Hamilton did not like the complexion of the betting in this race on Stanley Fay and cuttioned jockey Harris to make every effort to win, but the Walker crack took unkindly to the going and never threatened.

The attendance was surprisingly large for the dis-crack took unkindly to the going and never cheese.

The attendance was surprisingly large for the disagreeable racing conditions. It was draw-in day and eighteen books answered the roll call.

The stockholders of the Los Angeles Racing Association hold their annual meeting here December 15.

Among the latest arrivals from New York are Andy Platt and Barney Michaels. Edward Sinclair, partner of W. O. Parmer in the Edenwold Stud, near Nashville, arrived here today and will remain throughout the winter.

SOLITAIRE II. A PROMISING SIRE.

Solitaire II., the stallion that A. B. Spreckels imported to California frem England several years ago, has sired eleven winning two-year-olds of 1968. This showing is considered remarkable for the reason that his opportunities have been limited, he never having been bred to an outside mare.

Solitaire II. is a grandly-bred horse, being by Ayrshire, winner of the Epsom Derby and Two Thousand Guineas, and sire of Airs and Graces, winner of the English Oaks. On his sire's side he is of close kin to Merry Hamptoh, winner of the Derby and innunerable stakes on the British turf. Solitaire II.'s dam was Salisky, by Thunder, out of Utopia, by Ratuplan, brother of Stockwell and sire of the Epsom Derby winner, Kettledrum. Ridden by Lester Reliff. Solitaire II. himself won the Champlon Stakes at Newmarket, one and three-quarter miles, and the Could Vase at Ascot, During his racing career he competed successfully with all of the best English horses of his day, including Dieudonne, Captain Martin, Sweet Marjory, Goblet, Revoke, Torbalton, Labrador, Champ de Mars and others whose achievements entitled them to consideration as high-class horses.

Cotytto, the filly that has been running so brilli-antly at Oakland since the opening of the season there, is the star of the Solitaire II. two-year-old get, although Torbellino, a stake winner, and Car-misa are fast youngsters. The latter holds the American record, 40g. for three and a half furlongs. The following table shows the winning two-year-old sons and daughters of Solitaire II., their perform-ances and money won:

Horse.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Won
Cotytto	.12	3	2	1	6	$1,39

Trocha and Ocilla, both by Solitaire II., were also winners, but their racing was mostly confined to the minor meetings throughout the west, where the former won four races and the latter one.

HANDSPRING COMMENDED TO ENGLAND.

The annual December sale of thoroughbreds begins at Newmarket, England, next Monday and continues to and including Friday. Many horses change ownership every year at the December sale and transactions of prime importance not infrequently are brought off. Of one feature for the forthcoming sale of this year Sporting Life's commissioner says:

"The Friday's catalogue is one of considerably more consequence than usual, and in view of the many important lots which it embraces, we are not likely to see so many visitors leaving on the Thursday evening as in former years. For the moment I will only mention two—the Trenton mare, Palmy Days, which is believed to be in foal to William the Third, and the American-bred stallion, Handspring, a son of Hanover. There will be a very considerable leaven of American stock forthcoming at these sales, for on the Friday Mr. J. B. Haggin is offering twenty-seven of his mares, and Mr. H. T. Oxnard has eleven mares in the first day's catalogue. Handspring, which was foaled in 1893, is a horse of the Herod line, tracing back, through Hindoo, Virgil. Vandat and Glencoe (which was imported to the United States), to Sultan, son of Selim, a great-grandson of Herod. The Sultan branch of the Herod line has produced four, Decthy vinners, viz., Bay Middleton, Flying Dutchman, Andover and Ellington. We have practically none of its representatives in this country, but in France the family occupies a prominent position. It is to be hoped, therefore, that some English breeder will secure Handspring, which was not only a good-class race horse, but has proved a successful sire, more than fifty of his sons and daughters being winners."

TRAINER POLK IS REINSTATED.

San Francisco, Cal., December 2.—Stuart Polk, whose application for a trainer's license had been held up by the licensing committee of the Pacific Jockey Club on account of Polk's mame having been connected with the scandal arising out of the running of Blondy in lead bandages at the recent Boise meeting, received bis license yesterday.

The local racing authorities were guided in this disposition of the case by a report from Judge Robert Leighton, who presided at Boise, to the effect that it had not been established that Polk had any guilty knowledge of the use to which the lead that he purchased for the owner of Blondy was to be put. The owner of the horse, who was ruled off for life, declared that he alone knew of the condition in which his horse was running, and that nobody else was implicated. Polk has one or two horses in training at Oakland and holds the contract on the promising lightweight rider. E. Clark. Polk is best known to the local race-going public as the trainer of the crack sprinter, Gemmell, when that horse was running so well in the colors of President H. I. Wilson of the Butte Jockey Club here last season.

EL PASO MEETING IRREGULAR.

Beaumont, Texas. December 1.—At a meeting of the Texas Thoroughbred Association, held this evening. a resolution was passed by which William Murray, of El Paso, Texas, was refused a franchise for the midwinter sixty-day meet at that place. Mr. Murray will hold an independent meet. Dates granted the San Antonio Racing Jockey Club to hold a meeting in that city for nineteen days, beginning December 12, was ratified. Galveston applied for dates for the early part of the year, and the matter was referred to the committee. The resolution adopted against Murray's application was as follows: "That the sentiment of the meeting is that commercial racing is antagonistic to the perpetuation of the racing interests in the state of Texas and that the efforts of the association here represented be directed to discouragement of such meeting to the fullest extent of their power."

The schedule for the dates for the year 1909 was referred to a committee, which up to the present has not reported. This was done because Louislana. Oklahoma and Texas applicants for meets had the same dates in many instances.

ANTRIM SALE A FAILURE.

None of the others brought as much as $50, and one, a chestnut filly by Cromwell—Perfection, was knocked down to W. Fisher for $10.

WON FOR OWNERS BY TRAINERS.

As the foundation an owner owes financial success to his horses, but a hardly less important factor is the skill of the trainer, who works the horses into the perfect muscular condition that enables them to achieve success. It is a very delicate art, requiring great judgment in gauging the natural capacity of the horse, great and untiring labor and constant supervision in exercising and feeding him up to the street and untiring the success. Then, harder still, and the greatest test of the trainer's mastery of his calling, is the task of keeping the horse in that perfection of condition after it has been attained. That is the point in which the majority of trainers fail. Still, all do the best they can, and show results that attest their fidelity to the interests of their employers and frequently achieve surprising returns by sagacity in placing moderate race horses in races where conditions are most in their favor.

Of the trainers of this year, James Rowe made the greatest returns to his employer with the horses under his care, with John E. Madden second to him and Andrew J. Joyner third. They constitute a "Big Three" among the trainers, no others training horses that collectively won as much as $100,000, or even $50,000, for that matter. But it is said that good horses make good lockeys, and in a measure this is true of trainers. The three had the great money earners, Maskette, Colin, Sir Martin, Fair Play, Ceit, Fayette, Ballot, and others of note in their care, and in that were lucky. There were other trainers of great skill and experience who did not enjoy the good fortune of having such grand race horses in their charge and who could probably have done as well with them as did the trio of capable leaders. The table here published shows what the trainers who have retired for the season effected this year in the way of winning money with the horses trained by them:

Harry Stover says there is little chance of adverse racing legislation in the state of Montana, and that the meeting to be held at Butte next season will be conducted on a big scale.

Clem Jenkins, the once noted jockey, well known both in this country and in Europe, recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in the St. Francis Hospital at San Francisco. The chances for his recovery are good.

Mondamin, which won the Derby Gold Cup at Derby, England, last month, is six years old and lad never won a race before. It is doubtful if the records of racing hold another case of a six-year-old maiden achieving success in a high-class stake race. "Silver Bill" Riley, known and respected in rac-SPECIAL between Dec. 5 and Dec. 9

"Silver Bill" Riley, known and respected in rac-ing circles all over the country, is lying at the point of death in Dallas, Texas. He contracted a coid recently and this developed into a severe case of pneumonia, from which it is doubtful if he will survive.

Rock Sand has become thoroughly acclimatized and is one of the most improved horses in the country One would hardly recognize the horse now, if he had only seen him since shortly after she came to Kentucky. He has gained in flesh to a wonderful extent and is the picture of health.

It is estimated that about 2,000 or 2,500 head of stock have been sold out of Kentucky in the last seven months. A great majority of this stock will never be seen again on the race course. This means that yearlings will be in great demand from now on and should racing open up in the west next year horses will be higher than ever before.

It appears that although the officials of the Butte norses will be higher than ever before.

It appears that although the officials of the Butte Jockey Club have reinstated jockey Aubuchon, he has not as yet obtained a renewal of his license from the California Jockey Club. According to the rules governing racing on the coast, a jockey who has been under suspension must obtain a renewal of his license before being able to ride after his reinstatement.

reinstatement.

U. Z. De Arman, who has disposed of all his horses and retired from the turf, contends that he is not guilty of the offense for which his entries were refused last season at Santa Anita Park, and hopes to present convincing proof to the officials to clear his turf record. De Arman points to the poor form shown by Hereafter, which was the cause of his entries being refused, since that day and says that he was not responsible for the gelding's bad race on that occasion.
